This is an individual assignment. You will hand in 1 pdf/word document on ClickUp.

For this assignment you will design the necessary low fidelity screens and notifications for the Make Booking use case of the Soapy Suds case study. Use the case study and the narratives provided as a guide for what needs to be on your screens.

Please make sure your screens have a logical flow. Indicate the buttons that need to be clicked to get to the next screen.

Screens can be created using any software or drawn by hand. Drawings should be legible.

Add your screens below the "Screen Designs" heading and delete the instructions before submission.
